WAKEFIELD CONCERT BAND TUNING UP FOR HOLIDAY CONCERTS The Band Celebrates the Season with Benefit Concerts in Wakefield, Warwick, and Newport, RI.

Wakefield, Rhode Island—November 26, 2010. With December fast approaching, the 75-piece Wakefield Concert Band invites the community to enjoy three holiday benefit concerts in Wakefield, Warwick, and Newport.

“My heart was singing and dancing long after the concert was over,” says Lydia Reynolds, reflecting on the band’s rendition of traditional favorites including “A Christmas Festival” and “Sleigh Ride” at Jesus Saviour Church in Newport last year. “We can’t wait for this year’s Christmas concert,” she adds.

Please join us and let your heart sing and dance this holiday season:

Wakefield, RI • December 6 • South Kingstown High School

The first of three holiday benefit concerts by the Wakefield Concert Band takes place on Monday, December 6, 2010, at 7:00 pm at South Kingstown High School, Columbia Street, Wakefield. Admission and refreshments are free. The band is requesting donations of personal toiletries to benefit the Jonnycake Center of Peace Dale.

Warwick, RI • December 10 • Sts. Rose and Clement Church

The Wakefield Concert Band is participating again this year in the annual holiday concert at Sts. Rose and Clement Church, 111 Long St., Warwick. on Friday evening, December 10, at 7:30 pm. This popular concert features the parish’s 40-member chorus as well as a holiday sing-a-long. Admission is $5 ($3 for Seniors and students).

Newport, RI • December 20 • Jesus Saviour Church

On Monday, December 20, at 6:30 pm, the Wakefield Concert Band will perform a benefit concert for the Society of St. Vincent de Paul at Jesus Saviour Church, Newport. Tickets are $10. Proceeds benefit people in need from Aquidneck Island.

The Wakefield Concert Band, founded in the late 1890’s in South Kingstown, RI, is an all volunteer, community concert band. The band is available to play at fundraisers throughout Rhode Island.
